The Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Programs presents its annual

DIVERSITY LECTURE SERIES

Becoming Who We Are: The Declaration, the Constitution, and the U.S.

Featuring

Kermit Roosevelt, III
Professor of Law,
Penn School of Law

Professor Roosevelt works in a diverse range of fields, focusing on constitutional law and conflict of laws.

He has published in the Virginia Law Review, the Michigan Law Review, and the Columbia Law Review, among others, and has represented a detainee in the detention center at Guantánamo Bay, Cuba.

Wednesday, October 11, 2017
3:30 pm to 4:30 pm
The ARCH on Locust Walk, Room 108

Registration is optional, but if you would like to register:
http://www.upenn.edu/affirm-action/offerings.html

Light Refreshments will be provided!