[The Faculty Grievance Procedure can be found in Section II.E.12 of the Handbook for Faculty and Academic Administrators (online at: www.upenn.edu/assoc-profost/handbook), in Almanac 8/30/98, revised Almanac 5/24/94, or contact the Faculty Senate Office, 898-6943.]
The University Council

The University Council, Penn’s University-wide governance organization, meets monthly during the academic year to deliberate on campus issues and share information on University projects and progress. Council is advisory to the president and includes representatives of the Faculty Senate, two student assemblies, and three staff assemblies. The full membership is shown below.

Council’s agenda and formal reports, and much of its debate, appear in Almanac. Meetings are open to observers who register their interest in advance by calling the Office of the Secretary (898-7005).

Much of the work of Council is done through its committee structure. As noted in the bylaws: “The committees governed by these bylaws are the standing committees of the Council, special committees created by the Council from time to time, and the independent committees.” This insert lists on pages C and D the 1997-98 membership of the standing committees—those “whose activities are directly instrumental in advancing the work of the Council”—and of the independent committees, which Council “does not directly charge but which may be called upon to report to the Council on specific issues within their purview.”

Any member of the University may be asked to serve on committees of the University Council, and only members of the University are eligible to do so. Each year, publishing a call in Almanac for volunteers and nominations, the Committee on Committees accepts nominations from the various constituencies for membership on the standing committees with the exception of the Committee on Research, and on the independent committees with the exception of the Committee on Open Expression and the Academic Planning and Budget Committee. (These excepted committees’ structures are outlined in detail in the Bylaws, published March 21, 1995 and maintained on line.) The Committee on Committees’ nominations are forwarded to the Steering Committee, which appoints members.

The workings of the committees can be found in an overview of their charges published in Almanac October 14, 1997, or in Year-End Reports in the issues of September 23, October 14, and November 25.—Ed.
