EXHIBITS

Admission Donations and Hours
Arthur Roger Gallery, Fish Fine Art
Free to Penn Students; free to Tues., Thurs., Fri., 10 a.m.–9 p.m.; Sat., 10 a.m.–5 p.m.
Bartram’s Garden, 5400 Woodland Ave.
Free; Thurs., 10 a.m.–5 p.m.
Christian Association, 403 Locust St.
Free; Mon.–Thurs., 8 a.m.–4 p.m.
CSG Library, 3613 Locust St.
Free; Mon.–Thurs., 9 a.m.–9 p.m.
CSG Student Lounge, Free; Mon.–Thurs., 9 a.m.–9 p.m.

Exhibits to See This Summer
From the Arthur Roger Gallery to the Van Pelt-Dietrich Library Center, there’s something for everyone, including paintings, sculpture, photographs and more.

Sharon Wasser Brown, The City Museum of Philadelphia

July 3 – August 14, see the Woodcutter’s Cottage from Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs at the Morris Arboretum in this year’s summer garden railway exhibit, The Fairy Tale Train. From Castles to Cottages, other scale-model buildings included in this exhibit are replicas of the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe, Bridging House’s From Bears’ Tales of Peter Rabbit, and Grandma’s Cottage from Little Red Riding Hood. All constructed using natural materials. Access, moss, bark and from the garden railway exhibit, The Fairy Tale Train.

Beginning June 19, at the Woodlawn Cottage from Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs at the Morris Arboretum in this year’s summer garden railway exhibit, The Fairy Tale Train. From Castles to Cottages, other scale-model buildings included in this exhibit are replicas of the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe, Bridging House’s From Bears’ Tales of Peter Rabbit, and Grandma’s Cottage from Little Red Riding Hood. All constructed using natural materials. Access, moss, bark and from the garden railway exhibit, The Fairy Tale Train.