

Leonard Davis Institute of Health Economics 2009 - 2010 Health Policy Series

Stephen Parente, PhD

Academic Director, Medical Industry Leadership Institute CSOM Finance & Insurance; Associate Professor, Carlson School of Management, University of Minnesota

Consumer Response to a National Marketplace for Individual Health Insurance

October 2, 2009

12:00 - 1:30 PM

Colonial Penn Center Auditorium

Lunch will be provided.
RSVP recommended.

STEPHEN T. PARENTE, PhD, MPH, MS is the Director of the Medical Industry Leadership Institute and an Associate Professor in the Finance Department at the Carlson School of Management, University of Minnesota where he specializes in health economics, health information technology, and health insurance. He has served as a consultant to several of the largest organizations in health care delivery including: UnitedHealth Group, Blue Cross Blue Shield, the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services, federal and state governments as well as medical technology firms. Dr. Parente is the principal investigator for an evaluation of consumer directed health plans using claims data from large employers. He is also examining the productivity and cost impact of information technology investments in hospitals and has recently concluded several studies on topics including: innovations from health savings accounts and medical banking technologies. Dr. Parente was a health policy advisor for the McCain 2008 Presidential Campaign and served as Legislative Fellow in the office of Senator John D. Rockefeller IV (D-WV) during the Bush and Clinton Administrations' health reform initiatives. He has a doctorate from Johns Hopkins University.

For more information or to RSVP please contact Lissy Madden at maddene@wharton.upenn.edu
www.upenn.edu/ldi

