

Leonard Davis Institute of Health Economics 2009 - 2010 Health Policy Series

Drew Westen, PhD

Professor of Psychology, Emory University

Sending the right message on Health Care Reform: the battle for hearts and minds

September 11, 2009

12:00 - 1:30 PM

Colonial Penn Center Auditorium

Lunch will be provided.
RSVP recommended.

Professor Westen received his B.A. at Harvard University, an M.A. in Social and Political Thought at the University of Sussex (England), and his Ph.D. in clinical Psychology at the University of Michigan, where he subsequently taught for six years. For several years he was Chief Psychologist at Cambridge Hospital and Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School. His major areas of research are personality disorders, eating disorders, psychotherapy effectiveness, adolescent psychopathology, political psychology, and the interface of psychodynamics and neuroscience. He is an occasional commentator on NPR's "All Things Considered," and his holiday song, "Oy, to be a Goy on Christmas," still airs on the radio in New York during the holiday season.

For more information or to RSVP please contact Lissy Madden at maddene@wharton.upenn.edu
www.upenn.edu/ldi

