ACADEMIC CALENDAR

1. Family Day.
3. Alumni Day.
4. Race Relations Conference: "Fighting Racism Through Unive..."

---

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES

Towering EINSTEIN, new videoclips show groups a portion of the original computer programming (898-3718 or 369-8803; reservations required)

---

EXHIBITS

Admission donations and honor students may be seated free of charge with ID.

---

FILMS

A special exhibit featuring a selection of films from the Ennemann Library.

---

MEETINGS

---

SPECIAL EVENTS

---

This May calendar is a pull-out for parents, students, and faculty to review recent additions, changes and cancellations if necessary. Please note the following dates are subject to week of publication. Members of the University are reminded to check this section of the Academic Calendar and the Update on Summer 2004 page.

---

ON STAGE

---

SPORTS

---

The Philadelphia International Festival of Contemporary Music is an annual event that features a diverse range of contemporary music in Philadelphia, USA. The festival showcases works by contemporary composers and performers and is a significant event for music aficionados and students of contemporary music.