It’s Becoming Traditional!

This and every third Thursday, except the last of each month, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. on 39th Street between Walnut and Chestnut Streets, on the balcony of Indian Streets Bar, 420 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA.

The University City District’s yellow-jacketed Safety Ambassadors will be on hand to welcome visitors to the arts and cultural happenings such as those listed below.

This month’s 3rd Thursday events are:
- Jazz Night featuring the Ray Brown Band at the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts at 6 p.m.
- Holiday Cheer Music and Holiday Cheer Singers at the Philadelphia Zoo at 6 p.m.
- Toy Fair and Christmas Shopping at the Free Library of Philadelphia at 3 p.m.
- Lighting the Christmas Tree and Caroling at the Temple City Arts League at 5 p.m.
- The Wishing Tree event at the Presbyterian Church of the Holy Name at 7 p.m.
- Lunar New Year event at the Chinese Consulate at 8 p.m.

For those who want to do some shopping at the event:
- The University City District’s Scholars’ Bookstore will present the Treasures of the Chinese Culture event at 11 a.m. and to 5 p.m., with a selection of books from the Chinese Scholars’ Bookstore.
- Art Galleries around town will host exhibits commemorating the Chinese New Year. These events will feature live music and refreshments.
- For those who want to do some shopping at the event, many stores on 39th Street between Walnut and Chestnut Streets will be open.

This event is sponsored by the University City District’s Scholars’ Bookstore, and will be held every third Thursday of the month. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact the University City District’s Scholars’ Bookstore at 215-546-3555.
