March 2000

Upcoming

1 William Silver, D.W. Paintings; Landscapes—Inside and Out. William Silver, School of Social Work and Planning; Silver; inspiration derived from his professional experiences in architecture, which he regularly deals with the human condition. Opening reception: March 9, 5-7 p.m.; Kelly Writers House. Through March 21.

Feline Symposium; also March 4, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.; McGraw Hall, University Museum. Free for students, $15 for general admission.

Special Calligraphy Presentation; also March 10, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.; Art Museum, University Museum. Free, admission required.

ON STAGE

1 How You Can Get What You Want Your Pen Name Awaits, TBA; also March 4, 8 p.m.; final reading March 10, 8 p.m.; University Museum; free.

Delta Phi Epsilon: “Cherish My Memory”; also March 10, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.; dinner 5:30 p.m.; I-House. Tickets: $20.

March Madness: $30 per game, $50 for a doubleheader; also March 11, 2 p.m.; and March 12, 2 p.m.; Palestra; $29/morning; $32/evening.

March Music: Philadelphia Orchestra; also March 12, 5 p.m.; Kimmel Center. Info.: (215) 898-3900.

Feline Symposium; also March 4, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.; McGraw Hall, University Museum. Free for students, $15 for general admission.

Special Calligraphy Presentation; also March 10, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.; Art Museum, University Museum. Free, admission required.
TALKS

An Update on the Role of the Intracellular Regulator Sirtuin in Cancer ( Archbishop B. Peter Libby )
Douglas Stanton, Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, room 223; 4 p.m., BRB II/III (Center for Research on Atherosclerosis)

The Future of Disease Diagnosis and Treatment: Development of New Technologies (Archbishop B. Peter Libby)
Douglas Stanton, Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, room 223; 4 p.m., BRB II/III (Center for Research on Atherosclerosis)

March 28

Logan Hall (History of Art; Film Studies).
Sky, Project Hope; 12-1:30 p.m.; Colonial (History; Phi Beta Kappa Lecture).

March 29

Ralph Wiley; 2 p.m. Winner Visitor Center, Morris Auditorium; S/0003 (Morris Auditorium).

March 30

Petra Mathers; 12:15 p.m.; IFEM (Institute for Environmental Medicine).

A New Challenge Against Cancer (Archbishop B. Peter Libby)
Douglas Stanton, Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, room 223; 4 p.m., BRB II/III (Center for Research on Atherosclerosis)

March 31

The Role of T-cell 1 and T-cell 2 CD8 T lymphocytes in the Regulation of Autoimmune Diseases (Archbishop B. Peter Libby)
Douglas Stanton, Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, room 223; 4 p.m., BRB II/III (Center for Research on Atherosclerosis)

FITNESS LEARNING

The Penc and Pencil Club: creative writing for women
Kathy Cobleigh and Michelle Shayer, authors (Archbishop B. Peter Libby); 3:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.; S/0003 (Morris Auditorium)