

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION REQUEST FORM
TO BE COMPLETED BY EMPLOYEE

In keeping with local, state and federal laws, Penn provides reasonable accommodations to qualified employees with disabilities. In general, it is the employee’s responsibility to inform his or her supervisor that he or she needs disability-related accommodation in order to perform the essential functions of the job. A supervisor is not required to provide reasonable accommodations if he or she is not aware of the employee’s need and desire for the accommodation. Reasonable accommodations are determined, identified and implemented in a collaborative process among the employee, supervisor and the Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Programs.

Contents of this request are confidential and will only be shared as needed with the appropriate personnel to consider the implementation of a reasonable accommodation. This form will not be placed in your employment record file. All medical documentation will be kept confidential.
